Course Description:

Just a few short months after his first letter to the Thessalonians, Paul is compelled to write to them again. Although their faith and love are greatly enlarged, they continue to face severe persecutions and afflictions.

In the midst of these difficulties, they are increasingly encountering opponents who are false teachers and deceivers, especially concerning the coming of the Lord.

Paul writes to correct error, clarify misunderstanding, and encourage the believers to persevere and stand firm.

As we study this letter, we will be instructed and equipped so that we also might not be deceived about His coming.
