Course Description:

In The Church of So Great a Salvation Part 3, we continued our study on the church focusing primarily on the importance of godly church leadership as taught in I Timothy and Titus.

We were challenged by the Scripture to consider the crucial connection between the unadulterated pure truth and the “mystery of godliness”, the holy conduct of the church of Christ.

In this last course on the church, we will have a close look at some difficult and controversial topics like church discipline and the role of women in the church.

... so that we will know and understand how to conduct ourselves in the church of the living God, the pillar and support of THE TRUTH! (1 Timothy 3:15)
