Course Description:

Israel was in a crisis! A remnant of the faithful had returned to the land of Israel to find a destroyed and desolate city and nation. God had promised through Jeremiah to bring them back with promises to do them good, not to harm them but to give them hope and a future. But this seemed almost impossible now. It would require God's intervention to bring about these promises.

So then, into this situation God raised up the prophet Zechariah to give desperately needed hope and encouragement to His beleaguered people. Through Zechariah God reminded Israel of His promises, of His commitment to them and of His great and mighty power by which He would accomplish them. And God has the same words of encouragement for us as well.
